

Southeast Region HHI June 2013

Arkansas County: A Train the Trainer Course: Set the Rules; Enforce the Privilege was held in Stuttgart at the PCC Seminar room. Parents attended to learn about the Teen graduated license course.

The Annual Grand Prairie Health Expo was held with the ACPIH coalition hosting the event. The LHU sponsored a Kid's Cooking School which emphasized the importance of good nutrition, balanced diet, and physical activity.

Ashley County: The Self-check Blood Pressure machines continue to be located in different businesses for the community members to use. In June there were 209 people who used the machines.

Desha County: The Self-Check Blood Pressure machines are now at 6 sites in the county. Heather Day and the LHUA are assisting the Mayor of Dumas to use a $6000.00 grant awarded to them for increase physical activity and access to fresh foods from the Foundation for the MidSouth. The Safety Baby Shower was held at Delta Memorial Hospital Conference Room in Dumas, May 28, 2013 from 1-3 PM. The moms in attendance are clients of the LHU.

Drew County: The Drew HEALTH Coalition hosted an injury prevention event at the Boys and Girls Club on June 21st. Lacy Vance, ATC, Recreational Safety Analyst for the Statewide Injury Prevention Program from the University of Arkansas for Medical Services came to speak to the children about Bike Safety. The children got to watch an educational video about Bike Safety and then each child was fitted for a helmet. A baby safety shower was also held at the Drew County unit where Back to Sleep was discussed and 2nd hand smoke.

Lee County: LHU Administrator involved in the Health Fair in Marianna. This event was sponsored by Lee County Community Health Center and held at the Lee Senior High School football field. Over 250 people showed up for Zumba, blood pressure checks, cholesterol, blood glucose.

Lincoln County: The self-check Blood Pressure machines continue to be set up in local businesses. In June there were 67 users with 6 abnormal readings and 17 people who reported no PCP.

Phillips County: Community Garden in Helena is now being worked again this year and producing vegetables for the community.

St. Francis County: Held an SOS Summer jam for the youth. The partners were the HHI youth subcommittee and who had a grant for tobacco education.